CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

This association is a corporation under the laws of the District of Columbia, and shall be distinguished and known as the POTOMAC ATHLETIC CLUB OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, organized and maintained with a view to mutual enjoyment and improvement in athletic exercises. The members of this Club pledge themselves to the strict observance of the following laws :

ARTICLE II.

SECTION I. The government and management of this Club is exclusively entrusted to a committee of fifteen of its members, to be known as the Board of Governors. Said government and management extending to all subjects, great or small, involving the interest of the Club.

SEC. 2. The members of the Board of Governors are divided by lot into three classes of five each ; the term of office of the first class shall expire on the first Wednesday in April, 1890 ; the term of office of the second class shall expire on the first Wednesday in April, 1891 ; and the term of office of the third class shall expire on the first Wednesday in April, 1892. At the annual election of the Club in 1890, and thereafter at each annual meeting, five members shall be elected by ballot as members of the Board of Govern-ers (to replace the outgoing class), whose term of office shall be three years.

SEC. 3. Whenever a vacancy shall occur on the Board of Governors, the President shall order a meeting of the Club for the purpose of electing a member to fill the said vacancy, provided, that said meeting must be held within thirty days after the vacancy occurs.

SEC. 4. The five candidates for election to the Board of Governors, at the annual election, who receive the highest number of votes shall be duly elected, and when a vacancy is to be filled the candidate receiving a majority of all votes cast shall be duly elected.

SEC. 5. Any member of the Board of Governors who shall absent himself from three consecutive meetings, without the consent of the Board having first been obtained, or unless he shall present at the next regular meeting an excuse for his absence satisfactory to every member of the Board present, shall cease to be a member of the Board upon the Secretary reporting to the Board the absence of said member and a motion being put and carried dropping said delinquent. It shall then be the duty of the Secretary to notify the member so dropped of the action of the Board of Governors.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1. The Board of Governors shall elect from their own number all officers and standing committees of the Club, and the Secretary shall give due notice to the members of the Club of the result of said elections. Those so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the Club, when the Board of Governors, after the election of the five incoming members of the Board, shall proceed to elect officers and committees for the next succeeding term, and so on annually. No person shall continue to be an officer of the Club after he shall have ceased to be a member of the Board of Governors.

SEC. 2. The Board of Governors may fix penalties for violations of its rules or the Constitution of the Club, and has powers to enforce them, or to remit penalties for offences against the rules or for accidental violations of the Constitution.

SEC. 3. The Board of Governors shall make rules for their own government, and in respect to all questions of the construction of the Constitution and rules the decision of the Board shall control and be binding.

SEC. 4. The Board of Governors shall report to the Club at each annual meeting the condition of the Club.

SEC. 5. The Board of Governors shall meet regularly on the first Wednesday of each month, except when that day falls on a legal holiday, in which case the meeting shall be held on the second Wednesday of the month, and special meetings may be called by order of the President or of the House Committee. Eight members of the Board shall constitute a quorum. The President, or in event of his absence, the Vice President shall preside at the meetings of the Board. Should both these officers be absent the Board may select a temporary presiding officer.

SEC. 6. Annual elections of the Club shall be presided over by the President, or in event of his absence, the Vice President. Should both of these officers be absent the Club may select a temporary presiding officer.

ARTICLE IV.

SECTION 1. The Club comprises the following grades of membership : Active, Inactive, Life, and Honorary. No addition can be made to the last three named grades.

SEC. 2. Any person, to be eligible for membership, shall be at least eighteen years of age, and no one whose membership in any organization has been dishonorably severed shall be eligible for membership in this Club.

SEC. 3. Application for membership shall be made in writing, and the application shall contain a promise to abide by and conform to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Club, should the applicant be elected. The application shall be endorsed by two members of the Club and be accompanied by three months' dues, and shall be submitted to and placed in the hands of the Committee on Membership, and the name of the applicant and the names of his endorsers be posted in the Locker Room ten days prior to the date of the meeting at which the application is acted upon.

Provided, That the applicant shall have been introduced to a member of the Committee on Membership prior to action being had upon the application.

Whenever the Committee on Membership shall report an application a ballot thereon shall be taken, unless otherwise ordered by a vote of the Board, but it shall be lawful for any one having authority to do so to withdraw an application upon which there has been an unfavorable report before a vote is taken. The ballot upon an application shall be secret, and if two black balls appear the applicant shall be declared rejected ; no change in the ballot shall be allowed after the result is announced.

SEC. 4. Active members shall pay dues at the rate of two dollars per month ; and no assessment shall be made except by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Governors. Active members shall have free access to, and use of all the property belonging to the Club, and shall have all other rights and privileges which belong to or are in any way connected with this organization.

SEC. 5. Any active member who shall be in arrears for dues to the amount of six dollars at any one time, or who shall be in arrears for any assessment ordered by the Board of Governors, for a period of sixty days after the said assessment shall have been directed to be paid by the Board of Governors, shall be notified of the fact by the Treasurer, the mailing of which notice shall be presumptive evidence of its receipt. If, before the next regular meeting of the Board of Governors such member shall fail to pay in full said amount, his name shall, upon the Treasurer's report of such failure, be dropped from the roll without further action; but any member so dropped may, at any time within six months from date thereof, by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Governors, be reinstated, upon written application and payment of all arrearages up to the date of reinstatement.

Provided, That any member who shall be in arrears for any dues at the date of the annual meeting shall be disqualified from voting.

Provided further, That any member dropped two or more years prior to making application for reinstatement, shall be regarded as a new applicant, and if elected, no arrears of dues shall be charged except the amount due at the date of the dropping of such applicant from the rolls.

SEC. 6. Life members shall not be subject to dues, and can be assessed only in like manner and proportion as active members. They shall have all the rights and privileges of active members, and shall also be amenable to the same discipline for any improper conduct or violation of the Constitution and By-Laws.

SEC. 7. Inactive members shall not be permitted to hold office, or be entitled to vote; neither shall they be entitled to the privilege of storing boats in the boat-house. They shall be entitled to the use of all of the property of the Club, except shell-boats; they may row in the barge when the crew includes not less than three active or life members (one of whom shall act as coxswain), but not otherwise, and they shall be entitled to the use of such lockers as are not actually required by the active and life members, such lockers, however, to be vacated when requested by the House Committee, and shall pay dues at the rate of $10 per annum, and his name may be transferred to the active membership roll upon written application to the Board of Governors.

SEC. 8. Honorary members have the same rights as those given inactive members, and shall not be subject to dues or charges of any kind.

ARTICLE V.

SECTION 1. The officers shall consist of a President, Vice President, Recording Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Treasurer, Captain, First Lieutenant and Second Lieutenant.

SEC. 2. The President, or in his absence the Vice President, shall preside at all meetings; maintain order, put motions when properly seconded, appoint all special committees, and generally observe that the provisions of the Constitution and By-Laws are observed.

SEC. 3. The Recording Secretary shall keep an accurate record of the proceedings of all meetings; shall inform the members of all special committees of their appointment, and the business assigned to their committee. He shall conduct the correspondence; inform all new members of their election, and shall keep a register of the names and addresses of all members.

SEC. 4. The Assistant Secretary shall issue notices of all regular and special meetings, and shall act as Recording Secretary in the absence of the latter.

SEC. 5. The Treasurer shall receive all moneys belonging to the Club, and shall keep an accurate account of the same, as well as an account of all liabilities and assets of the Club. He shall disburse all funds coming into his hands as the Board of Governors direct.

He shall present at each regular meeting a statement showing the amount of funds received and disbursed by him during the month preceding the meeting, together with the vouchers therefor, the liabilities for the current month, and the balance of funds which remain in his hands over and above such liabilities.

SEC. 6. The Captain shall assume entire control of the shell-boats and crews when in service, and shall be obeyed and respected accordingly ; he shall have power at all times to call upon the active or life members to assist him in his duties. He shall maintain order and discipline among the members in aquatic matters, and endeavor, by all means in his power, to promote the efficiency and activity of the crews. He shall answer all applications for the use of the shell-boats, and shall report, at each regular meeting of the Board of Governors, such infractions of the Constitution and Laws as shall come under his notice.

SEC. 7. The First and Second Lieutenants shall, at all times, aid and assist the Captain in the discharge of his duties. In the absence of the last named officer the First Lieutenant shall act as Captain, and in the absence of both the Captain and First Lieutenant the Second Lieutenant shall act in that capacity.

SEC. 8. The Committee on Athletics shall assume control of all athletic features. This committee shall assign each one of its members to separate supervision of different athletic branches, and sub-committees may be appointed from the Club by the committee to assist its individual members in their separate branches. This committee shall have power to spend a sum equal to and not exceeding ten dollars during a month, provided, that such sum shall be for athletic necessities.

ARTICLE VI.

SECTION 1. There shall be four Standing Committees, viz: The "Committee on Membership," the "Committee on Finance," the "House Committee," and the "Committee on Athletics," each of which shall be composed of three members, and be elected by the Board of Governors annually.

SEC. 2. The duty of the Committee on Membership shall be to inquire into the character and qualifications of all applicants for membership, and report thereon as soon as practicable. All deliberations of this committee shall be strictly private and confidential.

SEC. 3. The Finance Committee shall exercise a general supervision over the finances. To them shall be referred all propositions for the raising of revenue, and the expenditures of all sums exceeding thirty dollars, before any action shall be taken thereon by the Board. They shall, in addition thereto, audit the accounts of the Treasurer.

SEC. 4. The House Committee shall have entire charge of the property of the Club, and shall keep the same in good order at all times. They shall have authority to contract debts, between the regular meetings, to the amount of twenty dollars, for the preservation of the Club property and the purchase of such articles as may be actually necessary; but in no case shall they exceed such amount without special authority.

ARTICLE VII.

The Board of Governors shall have power to remove its officers, by impeachment, for any official impropriety or misconduct; to drop from the rolls such members as shall neglect or refuse to pay their dues; to censure, suspend, or expel such members as shall be found guilty of any violation of the Constitution and By-Laws, or be found guilty of other misconduct; and to reinstate as members the persons thus dropped, suspended, or expelled, in such cases and upon such conditions as may be provided for by appropriate laws.

ARTICLE VIII.

Any member who may wish to resign must hand in his resignation at a regular meeting, and, if his account is settled, it shall be acted upon. And any member who shall resign his membership may be reinstated by a two-thirds vote, upon written application, to be made within six months from the date of acceptance thereof, upon the payment of dues from the time of resignation. If he shall fail to make such application within such time, he shall then apply for election upon the same terms and conditions as though he had never been a member of the Club.

ARTICLE IX.

SECTION 1. There shall be an annual meeting of the Club on the first Wednesday of April in each year, at such hour as the Board of Governors may designate. If no quorum be present, the presiding officer shall adjourn the meeting to any other day with the same effect as if held as above.

SEC. 2. Fifteen members of the Club shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Club.

SEC. 3. There shall be mailed to each active and life member of the Club, at least ten days before the annual meeting of the Club, a copy of this section of the Constitution; a list of the outgoing Governors, and, after a classification of the Governors, a list of the continuing Governors; a statement of the members nominated as Governors on each list of nominations endorsed as such, signed by not less than three active or life members; such nomination to be handed in to the Secretary not less than fifteen days prior to the annual meeting.

SEC. 4. No member shall be eligible for election as a Governor unless his nomination therefor shall have been posted in the Club-house, in the usual place of posting notices, for at least ten days before the election, and unless his said nomination shall have been signed by at least three active or life members of the Club.

SEC. 5. Upon the written request of fifteen members, active or life, of the Club, the Board of Governors, or, if there shall be no quorum present at a meeting of the Board, such of the Governors as may be present shall call a special meeting of the Club to consider a specific subject.

SEC. 6. At any business meeting, after the business before it shall have been disposed of, discussion upon the interests of the Club shall be in order.

ARTICLE X.

No alteration or amendment of this Constitution shall be made except by a two-thirds vote of the members present at the annual meeting of the Club, and then only when the members have had a month's notice of the fact, or at a special meeting of the Club called for the specific purpose, and no special meeting of the Club can be called except by the Board of Governors.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

Rules of Order.

SECTION 1. All business at any regular meeting of the Board of Governors shall be considered in order as follows :

- I. Roll call.
- II. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting.
- III. Report of officers.
- IV. Report of committees.
- V. Collection of dues.
- VI. Election of officers.
- VII. Election of members.
- VIII. Deferred or unfinished business.
- IX. New business.
- X. Adjournment.

SEC. 2. The order of business as above arranged may, at any time, be temporarily changed or dispensed with, by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

SEC. 3. All business at the annual meeting of the Club shall be considered in order as follows :

- I. Roll call.
- II. Reading of minutes of preceding meeting of the Club.
- III. Report of officers.
- IV. Election of members to the Board of Governors.
- V. Adjournment.

SEC. 4. All debates shall be governed by parliamentary rules as laid down in Cushing's Manual.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1. The Boat House shall be in charge of the House Committee. All applications for lockers and storage of boats shall be made to this committee.

SEC. 2. Visitors may be admitted to the Boat House when accompanied by a member, or upon presentation of a pass signed by any member of the Club. But no such passes shall be recognized on any occasion when the house is held for Club purposes.

SEC. 3. The ball room and ladies' rooms may be assigned any member or members upon written application to the House Committee for the purpose of holding a dance. Such privilege shall not be extended to the same member or members at lesser intervals than two weeks, and the member or members obtaining such assignment shall be held strictly responsible for any injury that may befall Club property by reason of such use, and shall pay the Treasurer three dollars for consumption of gas. Should persons objectionable to the Board of Governors be invited by the member or members having such assignment, the Board may direct a discontinuance of such invitation by any member, and such direction shall not be violated. Should such direction be knowingly and intentionally violated the member or members guilty shall be called before the Board of Governors upon an article of impeachment proposed by the House Committee, and shall be tried in accordance with the rules, and, if found guilty, shall have a fine of one year's dues imposed upon him or them.

SEC. 4. Visitors may only be admitted to the dressing room when accompanied by a member.

SEC. 5. Members shall not appear in any portion of the second story of the Boat House, outside of the dressing rooms, in shell uniform, neither shall they appear so attired in the plat of ground at the entrance to the Boat House.

SEC. 6. Any member or members who shall carelessly cause injury to or destruction of any property of the Club, shall repair or replace the same at his or their expense. The House Committee shall decide whether such injury or destruction was due to carelessness, and if the House Committee find the injury or destruction due to carelessness they shall report so to the Board of Governors, with their estimate of the damage done. If the property is not repaired or restored within two weeks thereafter, to the satisfaction of the House Committee, they shall report the fact to the Treasurer, who shall charge the estimated damages to the member or members account or accounts, and such charge shall be treated as dues.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1. The Committee on Athletics shall have control of the athletic grounds. All applications for athletic goods of the Club shall be made to this committee.

SEC. 2. Visitors may be admitted to the grounds when accompanied by a member, or upon invitation of the Board of Governors or the Committee on Athletics.

SEC. 3. The Committee on Athletics are to exercise the same control over the property of the Club situate on the grounds as the House Committee do at the Boat House, and the provisions of Section 6, Article II, of the By-Laws, relating to injury or destruction of Club property, shall be observed by the Committee on Athletics.

SEC. 4. Sundays and all legal holidays shall be regarded as field days at the athletic grounds, and team practice shall be subservient to the enjoyment of the members in athletic pursuits on that day.

SEC. 5. Members using Club athletic property must return it promptly to the proper place when they have finished with it.

ARTICLE IV.

SECTION 1. The Captain shall control all boating property of the Club.

SEC. 2. No member shall be allowed to secure the use of either of the pleasure boats of the Club to exceed once in ten days, nor more than five days in advance. The barge may be obtained in like manner, and under no circumstance shall it be allowed to carry more than twenty persons, including the crew and coxwain. It shall be the duty of the coxwain to see that the preceding rule is not violated. The shell boats may be launched as the Captain, or in his absence, the Lieutenants may direct.

SEC. 3. Every crew desiring to row, except an eight, a gig, or a barge crew, shall choose their bow oarsman before the boat is taken from its berth, and the other members of the crew shall be subject to and obey the orders of the bow oarsman so chosen until it shall be returned thereto. The coxwain of an eight, a gig or a barge crew shall be captain of such crew, and be respected as such from the time the boat is removed from its berth until it is returned thereto, and no one shall coxwain the new eight who weighs over 130 lbs.

SEC. 4. No member shall row, in either the barge or shell boats, unless clothed in the appropriate uniform hereafter prescribed.

SEC. 5. The shell boats shall have precedence in leaving and in returning to the Boat House ; and all other boats owned by the Club or the members shall give way at all times.

SEC. 6. Every member of a crew shall stand by and obey the instructions of the captain of his crew until the boat and oars are properly stored, unless he shall have obtained permission of his captain to retire ; and it shall be the duty of the captain of such crew to see that everything is in its proper place.

ARTICLE V.

SECTION 1. Each active or life member shall be allowed to store one pleasure boat and one shell boat, double or single.

SEC. 2. No boats, except those belonging to the Club, or its active or life members, or to regular boating organizations, shall be stored in the Boat House, except by consent of the Board of Governors.

SEC. 3. No boat, appurtenances, or uniform, owned as private property by any member, shall be removed by another without the owner's consent.

SEC. 4. The House Committee shall have power to reject or refuse admission to the Boat House of any boat or boats which, in their judgment, it may be to the interest of the Club to exclude.

ARTICLE VI.

SECTION 1. The Club shall have five uniforms, viz : dress, barge, shell, base ball, and general athletic uniform.

SEC 2. The dress uniform shall consist of trousers, coat and vest, of blue yacht cloth, and a cap. The coat shall be a double-breasted sack, with two rows (four in each) of large sized yacht club buttons down the front, and two medium sized buttons of like character on each sleeve. The vest shall be collarless, with a row of six medium sized yacht club buttons down the front thereof. The cap shall be the same as a naval officer's, with double gold cord, and monogram "P. A. C." on the front.

SEC. 3. The barge uniform shall consist of trousers, shirt, necktie and cap. The trousers shall be of blue yacht cloth, made in ordinary street style. The shirt shall be of blue flannel, double breast and back, with rolling collar six inches in depth, with a white star in each corner, the collar opening at the neck to show three medium sized yacht club buttons; close fitting cuffs, two and a half inches in width, fastened with two medium sized yacht club buttons; breast pocket on the left side, lined with red; crow feet trimmings worked in black silk, and a red silk necktie. The cap shall be without brim or vizor, of regulation Navy pattern, with the word "POTOMAC" in gilt letters on a black silk band encircling the same.

SEC. 4. The shell uniform shall consist of a sleeveless red knit worsted shirt, with a white stripe one inch wide around the neck, and a white star upon the breast; blue knit worsted trunks, red stockings and a vizor cap, red and white bars one inch wide running horizontally round the cap and over the vizor.

SEC. 5. The base ball uniform shall consist of a red and white $1\frac{3}{8}$ cap, light corduroy pants, a flannel shirt to match pants in color, long red stockings and red belt.

SEC. 6. The general athletic uniform shall consist of shell suit, long red stockings and red and white cap, alternate stripes, $1\frac{3}{8}$ inches wide ; a white sweater with red letter P on breast.

SEC. 7. The Captain shall wear, on each sleeve of his coat, three bands of narrow gilt braid three-eighths of an inch apart ; the First Lieutenant two, and the Second Lieutenant one.

SEC. 8. The Club flag shall consist of two bars of equal width, the upper one scarlet and the lower one white.

SEC. 9. The Club badge shall be a circle one-half inch in diameter, with narrow rim of gold, with dividing line of gold drawn diagonally across the center, with a field of white and red enamel, with the letters P. A. C. in gold placed diagonally in center of badge.

ARTICLE VII.

Offences, Charges, Trials, &c.

SECTION 1. Disobedience to or violation of any of the provisions of the Constitution and By-Laws, as well as improper or immoral conduct or language, on the part of any member, shall be deemed an offence for which the offender may, after due trial and conviction, upon charges duly preferred, by a majority vote of the Board of Governors at a regular meeting, be reprimanded, suspended, or expelled.

SEC. 2. All charges against members must be submitted to the Board of Governors, in writing, at the regular meetings thereof, with the name or names of the party or parties preferring them signed thereto, and be supported by specific statements or specifications of the particular offence or offences committed.

SEC. 3. Whenever charges are preferred against any member, it shall be the duty of the Recording Secretary to furnish the member against whom such charges are preferred with a copy of the same, and of the specifications relating thereto ; but when it shall be found impossible for the Secretary aforesaid to reach the alleged offending member, the trial may be proceeded with the same as though he had been served with a copy thereof.

SEC. 4. All trials shall be had before the Board of Governors, and a majority vote of the Board shall be necessary to a conviction and punishment.

ARTICLE VIII.

Impeachment of Officers.

SECTION 1. Any officer may be impeached and tried for improper official conduct, or inattention to the duties of his office, upon presentation, at a regular or special meeting, of written charges and specifications signed by three members.

SEC. 2. In all cases where an officer is impeached, the proceedings relating thereto, including the furnishing of a copy of the charges and specifications to the accused, and the vote necessary to a conviction, shall be the same as those prescribed in the case of charges preferred against a member in the preceding article.

SEC. 3. Upon the conviction of an officer, he may be suspended or removed from office by a majority vote of the Board of Governors.

ARTICLE IX.

It shall be the duty of the Janitor to assist in launching and dispatching the barge and shell boats, and in storing them upon their return to the Boat House ; and until the duties attending the launching, dispatching or storing of the barge and shell-boats as aforesaid shall have been performed, no boat or boats, crew or crews, shall receive his services or attention.

ARTICLE X.

Amendment.

No alterations in or amendments to these By-Laws shall be made, unless proposed at a regular meeting of the Board of Governors, in writing, and only then upon receiving a three-fourths vote of the members present.
